

CURRENT RESEARCH PROJECTS AT FPV: 2005 - 2006

Year Approved/ Commenced	Project Title	Researchers	Status and Publications
2006	Pilot study of acceptability and feasibility of offering genetic carrier testing for Fragile X Syndrome to non-pregnant women in the general population.	Dr Sylvia Metcalfe
2006	Adolescent alcohol use and abuse in the flow of daily life: a pilot study of an innovative sampling methodology	Dr Sophie Reid, Centre for Adolescent Health, Murdoch Children's Research Institute	Currently recruiting participants at FPV – Action Centre
2005	Linked sentinel surveillance for HIV, hepatitis C, Chlamydia and syphilis in Victoria	Dr Margaret Hellard, Macfarlane Burnet Institute  (multi-centre project; also involves DHS sentinel sites, Royal Children's Hospital, Royal Women's Hospital)	Currently recruiting participants at FPV – Box Hill and Action Centre
2005	Women's preferences and satisfaction after six months of long-term reversible contraception, including IUDs or Implanon	Dr Renee Wong, Monash Medical Centre  (multi-centre project; also involves Monash Medical Centre)	Currently recruiting participants at FPV – Box Hill
2005	Will vaccination prevent cervical cancer in aboriginal and non-aboriginal Australian women? (WHINURS)	Professor Suzanne Garland, Royal Women's Hospital, Melbourne  (multi-centre project; involves sites Australia-wide)	Currently recruiting participants at FPV – Box Hill